CCD 2025 Nagpur

Cloud Community Day is GDG Cloud Nagpur's annual flagship event, which is scheduled to be held on 29th June this year.

With a special focus on Agentic AI this year, we're bringing an opportunity to learn about Cloud Technology, AI and other domains from tech leaders and renowned speakers ranging from startup founders, Googlers, and industry experts.

We welcome all passionate tech enthusiasts, cloud developers, and community enthusiasts interested to know the power of the Cloud and AI and how they can use it and incorporate it into their products to make them even better.

Why Sponsor Us?

- #CCDNGP25 is the city's biggest cloud event with a great networking platform, where you can find students and working professionals.
- By becoming a sponsor, you are investing in the future's brightest minds and strengthening your connection with the innovative minds of tomorrow.
- There is a high altitude to spread the word about your stellar company. We would love to know who you are and what you have to offer to our entrepreneurs and future engineers.
- Have fun mentoring and encouraging some of the best and most creative minds.
- Explore and expand your company's brand recognition and showcase your organisation's technical side through our workshops and more.
- This will be a great opportunity for you to showcase your product throughout the community day and get live feedback from the audience.
